Log

LOG

SEPT. 1—The good ship Chain set sail today with several new faculty members aboard. Misses Ruth Hornsby, Natalie Holladay and Ruth Shumate were added to the school personnel.

SEPT. 2—Happened to be up near Venable Field today, and was surprised to find that over 100 boys had responded to Coach Martin's announcement of team organizations. From the looks of them we should go to the "Buttercup Bowl."

SEPT. 5—Was talking to Miss Bolen today and found that our newcomers hail from far-flung parts of the U. S. In fact, they spread from California to Massachusetts.

SEPT. 6—If I don't stop meandering and settle down to work, nothing will be accomplished.

SEPT. 7—Mr. Walker lived up to his old standards by telling his favorite "ConCave" joke.

SEPT. 8—Do you realize that half the married people are women?

SEPT. 9—Since I'm finally a Senior, I attended our preliminary meeting. "Foots" Holland, our Junior president last year, presided over the unanimous election of Miss Horwitz and Mr. Walker as sponsors. They've been Senior favorites for many years.

SEPT. 12—They tell me that Alice Pritchett will guide the Student Council this year. She is to be supported by Minor Smith, John Harloe, and Virgil Leake as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

SEPT. 13—No more being run over or knocked down in the halls. The Ushers Club has been revived, following last year's success. This year Corbette King will preside, with Nicky Lacy as secretary.

SEPT. 14—That Holland boy must have made a good president last year; so we chose him for our Senior president. (I voted for you, "Foots.") Anita Hawkins, Minor Smith, Willie Barnett, and Lourine Hildebrand aid.

SEPT. 15—Ah! The Ides of September. To celebrate this worthy date, the Metcalf Literary Society had its club initiations. The new members dressed as characters of well-known books. They were on silence pledges and attempted to carry raw eggs all day without catastrophes.

SEPT. 16—Guess I'll have to be careful now, since the Ushers Club has stationed its officers at their posts. They look very businesslike, too.

SEPT. 17—Copy-Cat, Copy-Cat! The Hayes initiations were practically the same as the Metcalf's.

The students seem to approve of the new school site, as the majority voted "yes" in a recent poll.

SEPT. 20—The city seems to approve of a new school, too. The bond issue was passed for the Preston Avenue location.

SEPT. 21—I snooped on the Sophomore meeting and found that they elected Bobby Ott as president; Steve Martin, vice-president; David Kline, treasurer; and Bub Lacy, secretary. Miss Butt and Mr. Smoot will sponsor.

SEPT. 22—Wonder what attracts me to Venable Field so often? Anyway, I was well rewarded today. Bruce Reynolds was demonstrating some feats in blocking, which were just too funny. The whole team was in an uproar.

SEPT. 23—Rah! Rah! Get out your old megaphone and cheer the home team. Lane started the season beautifully by a 12-0 victory over Staunton Hi.

SEPT. 26—Don't those beer jackets just fascinate you? No wonder I accomplish so little. I sit up through all my classes and read the crazy inscriptions.

SEPT. 27—At the Girls' Senior Hi-Y meeting this afternoon we decided to try to hold Bible classes in the home rooms. This should prove quite interesting and educational.

SEPT. 28—Though I wasn't supposed to be there, I managed to sneak into the assembly for the lower classmen given by the Student Council. Officers of all clubs spoke and described the purposes of their organizations. I found out quite a lot I didn't know.

SEPT. 29—I see we have quite a few new books in the library. Guess I'll have to do more reading.

SEPT. 30—"Woe is us." After losing to Alexandria this afternoon with a score of 12-0, it seems that everyone sought something to raise his spirits. Lane was well represented at the "18" Club dance, although that club isn't a school organization.

OCT. 3—Heck! Our "ole home room ain't what she used to be." We didn't even get honorable mention in the Combination Ticket Contest. Room 12 and Lab. 1 won the banners for the most ticket sales since September 1.

OCT. 4—Miss Jansen tells me her debating team is studying a question for their first debate. She's quite secretive about it though.

OCT. 5—Room 11 gave the cutest assembly today. Their mountaineer skit fairly brought down the house.

OCT. 6—Actors and actresses must be plentiful, as the Players Club found nine new ones that suited them.

OCT. 7—The first Freshman pictures for the annual were taken. This is a busy day. We defeated Culpeper 31-0 this afternoon and then went to the "18" Club dance to celebrate. More fun!

OCT. 10—All the home room presidents went out, with the second group of Freshmen, to have their "beauty struck." Boo! Hoo! Our Junior team lost 12-0 to Fishburne. I knew I should have been there to spur them on!

OCT. 11—Saw Mrs. Alderman today. She says her team chose Nicky Lacy as manager and Janet English as assistant-manager for the newly organized teams. The Sophomores had their "pitchers tuck."

OCT. 12—I betcha' that more knees have been bent these last few weeks of the "mints" craze than ever before. I always thought crossed fingers would act just as a rabbit foot.

OCT. 13—Certainly am glad I'm a home room president, 'cause we had more fun today nominating Alice Pritchett, Ann Warwick, Elizabeth Buford, Nicky Lacy, and Martha Uedemann as candidates for Hallowe'en queen. Pictures of Hayes and Metcalf were taken, too.

OCT. 14—The Girls' Glee Club struck a pose for Mr. Gitchell and the staff this fine morning.

Even Seniors mixed at the "Freshman Mixer." The committee is mad because the popsicles ran out before they got any.

Oct. 15—Good ole Lane was victorious again, this time 27-0 over Danville.

Oct. 17—Things are looking up. I see even the Girls' Glee Club initiates wore their hair revealingly up, their dresses backwards, and odd socks and shoes. We wish someone would get some new ideas.

Oct. 18—Surely am getting tired of adjusting the shades for those pictures. This time it was for the Girls' and Boys' Junior Hi-Y.

Oct. 19—"Blackie," assisted by the pupils of room 12, gave an assembly on book characters. The canine stole the show, even from Jimmy (Handsome) Gianakos.

Oct. 20—Called Mr. Gitchell again today to take the Student Council and Players Club pictures. Wonder if he gets tired of hauling that birdie around?

Oct. 21—I see we have some good liars here, too. To be nice, we'll call them Tall Story Tellers. Anyway, the winners of the Sophomore contest were Hazel Bishop, Ed Lee, and Bub Lacy.

Alice Pritchett won the place of Hallowe'en queen.

Oct. 22—After all my cheering (of course the whole student body helped me) Lane lost 13-7 to Salem.

Oct. 24—Funny how peaceful it's been since the boys' sweaters have paled.

Oct. 25—A different sort of initiation at last. The Players Club newcomers carried posters advertising well-known products.

Oct. 26—Three "dark clouds" entered the assembly hall for the Players Club assembly.

Oct. 27—One of my favorite pastimes is reading the blotter inscriptions on Mr. Gresham's desk.

Oct. 28—Wonder if much business will be attended to at the Educators' meeting at Fluvanna this week-end.

Oct. 29—What's the matter, boys? We lost again today to Newport News to the tune of 18-0.

Oct. 31—If you didn't attend the Hallowe'en parade to see our Queen preside, you missed a treat. I think everyone envied her.

Nov. 1—Heard the first broadcast of the spelling match between Lane and McIntyre. Our Lytelle Miller walked off with the honors.

Nov. 2—Have we all gone book-wormish? Maybe they're trying to spread intellect, or somepin'. Anyway, Room 18 gave another "book" assembly today. It was good, but I'm beginning to feel dog-eared.

Nov. 3—Don't tell me that Miss Lucy has gone toper on us. We saw her carrying a very suspicious looking bottle from her room. Tsk! Tsk!

Nov. 4 and 5—"This heah" annual's predecessor won second place in the "B" class at the Southern Interscholastic Association Meeting at Lexington this week-end. Hope this edition does as well (or better, of course).

Nov. 4, 5, and 6—The State Hi-Y Convention got along very well without me at Pulaski this week-end. They chose Mary Jane Sneed as State President.

Nov. 5—Even though Tee-Jay trounced us 14-0 today, we entertained the teams at a party. Boy, did we have fun?

Nov. 7—Was it a blonde, brunette, or red-head that made her "Mark" at the S. I. P. A. Conference? 'Fess, up, Mr. Congdon, who is she?

Nov. 8—Gracious, are those pictures still being taken? The Ushers Club and Art Club had theirs done. Paul Finnegan walked off with the honors of the second Lane-McIntyre spelling match, too.

Nov. 9—Better get out your armor, everyone. The annual occurrence, paper-clip shooting, has begun again. The sharp-shooters must enjoy seeing people writhe in pain.

Nov. 10—Billy Donnelly and Rozelle Eckford nearly "mowed me down" running from Usher Congdon. Must you see all, Mark?

Nov. 11—Room 26 gave an Armistice Day Program in which Mr. Kovacs spoke on "Democracy's Last Stand in Europe," and very interesting, too. I think we should declare war on Glass Hi for beating us 21-7.

Nov. 14—Come on, everyone, give 'til it hurts to the Red Cross Drive. Wouldn't you like to feel that you'd helped, even if you had to miss a movie or two?

Nov. 15—The Metcalf actually wants the dues paid before December 20, if you intend to stay on the roll. This close to Christmas, too!

Nov. 16—Attended the Glee Club Assembly. It was quite a novel combination of swing and the classics. The audience nearly wore Reva out with encores.

Nov. 17—I hear we lost the second game of the basketball season to the Crozet girls, the score being 28-27. It was close, anyway.

Nov. 18—You did take my advice about cutting down on movies and contributing to the Red Cross, because when the Drive closed, we turned $97.79 over to the city's fund.

Nov. 19—The boys went all the way to Danville and then let D. M. I. beat us 13-0. There oughta' be a law.

Nov. 21—Jesse Russell must have taken advantage of our good library, because he guessed all of Miss Brown's tricky exhibits in the contest. Just goes to show what you can do if you use the "ole bean."

Wish I could have gone to see "Brother Rat" with the team. Mr. Sulfridge decided they deserved a treat; so off they went and didn't even ask me. I'll remember that next time any of them want to help me eat my peanuts.

Nov. 22—Was glad to hear that the Hayes presented the library with two new books.

Nov. 23—The first "C" Club dance was quite a successful beginning of the Thanksgiving Holidays, wasn't it?

Nov. 23-27—Certainly am enjoying these few days holiday. We had a turkey that big. Yum!

Nov. 28—My heart (and many others) is shattered. Mr. Smoot is no longer a free man. Miss Grace Robinson of Chattanooga, Tennessee, snared him during the holidays. We'll hand you fried chicken between the bars when your sentence really begins. Of course, the honeymoon isn't over yet, but you just wait: the first hundred years are the hardest.

Nov. 29—Ship plowed southeast through heavy seas, sails reefed, water in the hold.

DEC. 1—In view of our recent success in the spelling bees, a spelling club has been organized under the leadership of Paul Finnegan. Wish he'd been here when I tried to spell Massachusetts.

DEC. 2—No wonder I couldn't find my other shirt this morning. The Girls' Hi-Y had a rummage sale. Will whoever bought that yellow one with the green stripes and red dots please return? I gotta' go out!

DEC. 4—Thrills! My forty-third love, Bob Lyday, got honorable mention for the all-state football team. Too bad all the other forty-two couldn't have, too.

DEC. 5—Was Dr. Mitchell's face red when he mistook Miss Holladay for a pupil at the Observatory the other night?

DEC. 6—Our spelling club must be slipping, 'cause McIntyre won this match.

DEC. 7—Morning glories to Mr. Gresham's second annual "March of Time" assembly. Cheers also for the boys who received their football letters today.

DEC. 8—More sore muscles are advertising the fact that the Hayes had a skating party. More fun and more falls! I seem to lose out on everything exciting. Mr. Gianakos didn't even invite me to the annual football banquet at his restaurant. Somebody might have given me a rose, at least.

DEC. 9—Glad so many speakers are visiting us. Mr. Luther Richmond, State Supervisor of Music, spoke to Miss Ruggieri's classes.

DEC. 12—When the "Honor Bright" failures organized the "Flop Club" I thought they had something, but it turned out that they had a flop.

DEC. 13—Signed Audrey Thomas's petition for a longer holiday today. Don't guess anything will come of it though, and I don't believe I could ever get over it if it did.

DEC. 14—Wonder if Mr. Smoot is singing "If I Had the Wings of an Angel" yet. Maybe he married one.

DEC. 15 and 16—After dressing in my best bib and tucker, I set out to be entertained by Elisabeth Buford and Bob Lyday in "Honor Bright." Found it well worth the price.

DEC. 19—Please all you guys and gals sign Jane Shields' petition to get Miss Jansen to teach 4B History. We don't know how we'll ever get used to anyone else.

DEC. 20—Just five more days 'til Christmas. Do your shopping early—(I mean before Christmas Eve, anyway).

DEC. 21—Just did get to the Girls' Glee Club Christmas party in time for refreshments. The Christmas spirit is finally here.

DEC. 22—Since Mr. Nickels seems to be so fond of lollipops, I hear his 4A Chemistry class presented him with a beautiful, green, "All-day" one.

DEC. 23—A good start to the festivities was the Senior Dance. Jingle bells, jingle bells, tra—la—la—la—la.

DEC. 23-JAN. 2—Christmas holidays. 'Nuf said!

JAN. 2—My heart swelled with joy and pride when the Duke coach sent Lane's Alumnus Carl Deane into the Rose Bowl game. I'll bet with you as to who the next one will be.

JAN. 3—Gosh, it's hard to settle down to work again, with visions of the swell holidays still with me.

JAN. 4—Would you believe that men spend more on beautifying themselves than women do? Just ask Tommy Johnson.

JAN. 5—After much deliberation, the committee decided to leave the Senior rings the same as before. Any change would have caused an advance in price. Pocketbooks screamed so loud that they had to be considered.

JAN. 6—Lane's basketball boys lost 16-13 to Shenandoah and the girls won 16-15. That ought to prove what I've always said about the female side of all arguments. There wasn't any hair pulling, either.

JAN. 9—I haven't gotten used to writing 1939 yet. If anyone sees any of my papers dated wrong, please correct. Thank you!

JAN. 10—Wish Miss Horwitz would tell us how she got the tag "Peaches." She is a "peach" to take it so well, though.

JAN. 11—If you happened to be behind the drug store you no doubt saw about ten boys escaping through a window. Reason: Mr. Sulfridge came to the front door.

JAN. 12—Those Ruggieri girls have more than their share of talent. Miss Vera Ruggieri gave a violin concert for sister Hebe's music classes, much to the delight of the classes and many outsiders (myself included) who could sneak off from work.

DEC. 8—FOOTBALL BANQUET

JAN. 13—Is Francoise hard to please, or does she enjoy lovin' 'em and leavin' 'em? She's always with someone new.

JAN. 14—Newsflash! Lane basketballers win 17-8 over Salem.

JAN. 16—I see by the bulletin board that the Glee Clubs have chosen Ann Walker, Bob Lyday, Charlotte Warwick, and Bobby Walter to lead their bi-annual operetta "In Old Vienna."

JAN. 17—Wonder if B. Lyday has gotten over the difficulties of delivering Christmas presents yet? Bet not.

JAN. 18—Charlie Henderson and Carolyn Mainfort turned gunman and his moll long enough to give a good skit for the Metcalfe assembly.

JAN. 19—This would be a wonderful place to say something bright. What would you suggest?

JAN. 20—Amid all the argument, I am idly wondering whether the idea of the composite girl originated with the Midway Student or the CHAIN. However, Helen Burrows is going to do the job, and if it's good we'll claim the idea.

JAN. 23—Looks like the Midway Student has gone modern. They've streamlined on us. Very nice.

JAN. 24—Pardon my sleepy look, but after loafing for so long, I had to cram for exams. Hope that State test is easy.

JAN. 25, 26, and 27—Exams. Need I say more?

JAN. 28-31—Whew, after so much brainwork, I certainly do need this vacation.

FEB. 1—Had the misfortune to show up at a call meeting of the Girls' Hi-Y, and was reminded to pay my dues or else.

FEB. 2—My goodness, look at all the little Freshies running around. Do they really get smaller, or am I getting old?

FEB. 3—If you hear an odd clump, clump sound, don't get excited. It's only Francoise getting around in her Holland brogues.

FEB. 6—We seniors have gone in the bookmaking business (not the way you think). Texts couldn't be found to suit us; so we are making our own.

FEB. 7—Fortunately I happened to drop into the assembly hall just in time to hear Professor B. A. Walpole speak. He told an interesting story about his experiences as a teacher on Chicago's waterfront.

FEB. 8—Any queer sounds heard from down Assembly Hall way are only the boys tuning up for their parts in the operetta.

FEB. 9—Suppose you tell me what went on today. I can't seem to wake up.

FEB. 10—Saw movies on the sinking of the U.S.S. Panay. Gives a good case of goose-pimples.

FEB. 11 and 12—Wish I were with Mr. Speidel and his group in N. Y. Bet they're atop the Empire State Building this very minute.

FEB. 13—Back on the Student Council at last. Just in time to see the officers re-elected.

FEB. 14—The French classes got a chance to see what the language really sounds like when Monsieur Paul, President of the Victor Hugo Club, visited them this bright Valentine day.

FEB. 15—Skipped out on the Hi-Y Bible Class. If Ruth is looking for me, I just left for an indefinite stay in Siberia.

FEB. 16—If I could spell, I might have been one of the nine new members taken into the spelling club.

FEB. 17—Could it be that the mortgage is due on Miss Lucy's room and the ice-hearted landlord put her out? That's what we thought, until we found that the trunk only contained old maps and papers.

FEB. 20—Hope I'm somebody's "Best Girl," 'cause the Hi-Y has decided to have its banquet and dance on April 28.

FEB. 21—The committee on rating our school has decided that we're low on "attitudes." I'll wager they pick up when the new building is finished.

FEB. 22—I cannot tell a lie. The Senior Class voted on its features today. The school anxiously awaits the results.

FEB. 23—The features were announced and all selections seemed to meet with approval. The "ohs" and "ahs" were just as loud this year as last when Jimmy G. kept his place of "Best Looking Boy."

JAN. 6—LANE-SHENANDOAH GAME

FEB. 24—At last the composite “Dream Girl” has appeared. Helen’s teacher was right—all good features don’t make a beauty. That’s what we get for never being satisfied.

FEB. 27—My sympathy to those who have slaved for five months and made the honor roll. Nice work, and I do mean work.

FEB. 28—The Metcalf that I just got kicked out of walloped the Hayes on Mr. Speidel’s WCHV Quiz Program. Getting rid of me must have done them good.

MAR. 1—Ah! Spring is only twenty days away. Brr, it’s cold today though.

MAR. 2—I had something so dumb to say, but it was so dumb I forgot it.

MAR. 3—The basketball teams are quite excited about their trip to Shenandoah. The girls go, too, so they should have fun!

MAR. 6—I told you the girls should have gone before. Both teams have returned victorious. Hurrah!

MAR. 7—If a man had forty acres of land with a hill in the middle, where would he be most likely to put a pig pen? I don’t know either.

MAR. 8—Miss Bolen seems to resent my asking her forty million questions when she’s busy. I don’t see why.

MAR. 9—At last I know why wedding and engagement rings are worn on the finger they are. Why? Because of an artery to the heart, dope!

MAR. 10—Mr. John Faris, of a local insurance company, spoke on Safety. Be careful!

MAR. 13—Good thing today didn’t come on Friday; or are you superstitious?

MAR. 14—Many of the fifty patrons who saw us at work (?) helped elect Mr. S. F. Hamm president of the Parent-Teachers’ Association.

MAR. 15—At last I get my picture taken. The staffs of the Bumble Bee, CHAIN and Midway Student watched the birdie.

MAR. 16—I’ve always thought passport pictures were the world’s worst, but few of the Seniors will even claim theirs. We all look like “gun-toters.”

MAR. 17—Father Rowen, Priest of the Church of the Holy Comforter, spoke to the Seniors on St. Patrick.

"C" CLUB INITIATION

SECTION OF GROUP ON WASHINGTON TRIP

LANE-MCINTYRE BOXING MATCHES

SCENE IN LIBRARY

THE FUTURE LANE

Since the approval of site and plant by the School Board, work has progressed steadily on Charlottesville's new high school.

Attended the Junior dance. More little people turned out. I must be getting old.

MAR. 20—Mark has become quite important. He receives telegrams at school, and two at a time!! Bet she's a blonde.

MAR. 21—The first day of Spring. That's funny. I've had Spring fever all winter. The Glee Clubs get the Air!! They competed on the Community Quiz Program. The boys were victorious (of course, they say). Ask Mary Emily about "Old Kentucky Home."

MAR. 22—Followed the Girl Hikers around all afternoon. They took a nice jaunt from Fry's Spring Road through to Ridge Street. Boy, was I tired!

MAR. 23—The typing classes have started mimeographing. If any of you teachers have any (and I know you do), please see one of the pupils.

MAR. 24—The Seniors left this morning at six o'clock for their annual Washington trip. Wonder if the boys will cut up like they do on the football trips? Miss Horwitz will take care of that I guess.

MAR. 27—Today should have been declared a holiday. All the Seniors who went on the trip look as though they might use about twenty-five hours sleep. They report that it was well worth it, though.

MAR. 28—At the Junior meeting called by Mr. Sulfridge, Garland Spicer was elected to represent the class at Blacksburg in June at the citizenship and leadership training course sponsored by the American Legion.

MAR. 29—I'm completely unclassified when it comes to seeing assemblies. The Hayes gave a unique prophecy of some Laneites' futures.

MAR. 30—Do you suppose Bobby Walker has any interest beside math in all the girls he calls so much? He surely keeps the wires hot.

MAR. 31-APR. 2—Many of our Hi-Y members attended the Conference in Warrenton. Our Gaston Gee was elected vice-president and Betty Ann Behrendt, secretary.

"This here book" announced its dedication. You look and see who.

APR. 3—Miss Bolen started measuring for caps and gowns today. Begins to look as if the end is nearing. Wonder if they'll get one small enough for Jesse Russell.

APR. 4—Have you heard all the "me, me, me," and "tra-la-la" coming from the Assembly Hall? The Operetta cast is doing its last-minute tuning up.

APR. 5—After much postponement, the operetta finally came off. In spite of the participants' fear, everything went well and it was quite good.

APR. 6—Miss Bolen estimates that 110 or 112 made the Honor Roll for March. If I hadn't gotten that "C" I might have been there, too.

APR. 7—The "C" Club dance was just too much fun. Everyone sported new Easter duds. Very pretty, too!

APR. 7-10—Easter Holidays have at last come. I surely need a rest. This log is getting me down.

APR. 11—That furlough (gone Army on you) was just what I needed. Looks like I'll have to give this up and attend to business.

APR. 12—You'll have to amuse yourselves today. I have buckets of work to do. Go up and watch the intra-mural softball games on Venable field.

APR. 13—Mr. Speidel took a group to Washington today to celebrate Jefferson's birthday. Shoulda' gone to Monticello.

APR. 14—As much as I hate to, I'm afraid I'll have to leave you nice people for a while as I have two term papers to write. Haven't got one you could lend me, have you?

APR. 29—Hello again! Let's see what's happened since I saw you last. About the 20th Miss Ruggieri took her music classes to the State Festival in Richmond. They got excused absences for two days, lucky bums.

The Hi-Y banquet and dance came off last night and a gala occasion it was too.

After all that, some brave girls got up to take a hike on Skyline Drive. Such is the price of an achievement pin, though.

Oh, yes, Rooms 18 and Lab 1 gave "the Pot Boiler" in assembly. As I remember, Paul Lyday, Jaqueline Lee, Bernard Wood, and Carolyn Mainfort took the leads.

If I don't write for a while, don't think I've fallen overboard; I'm just drowned in work.

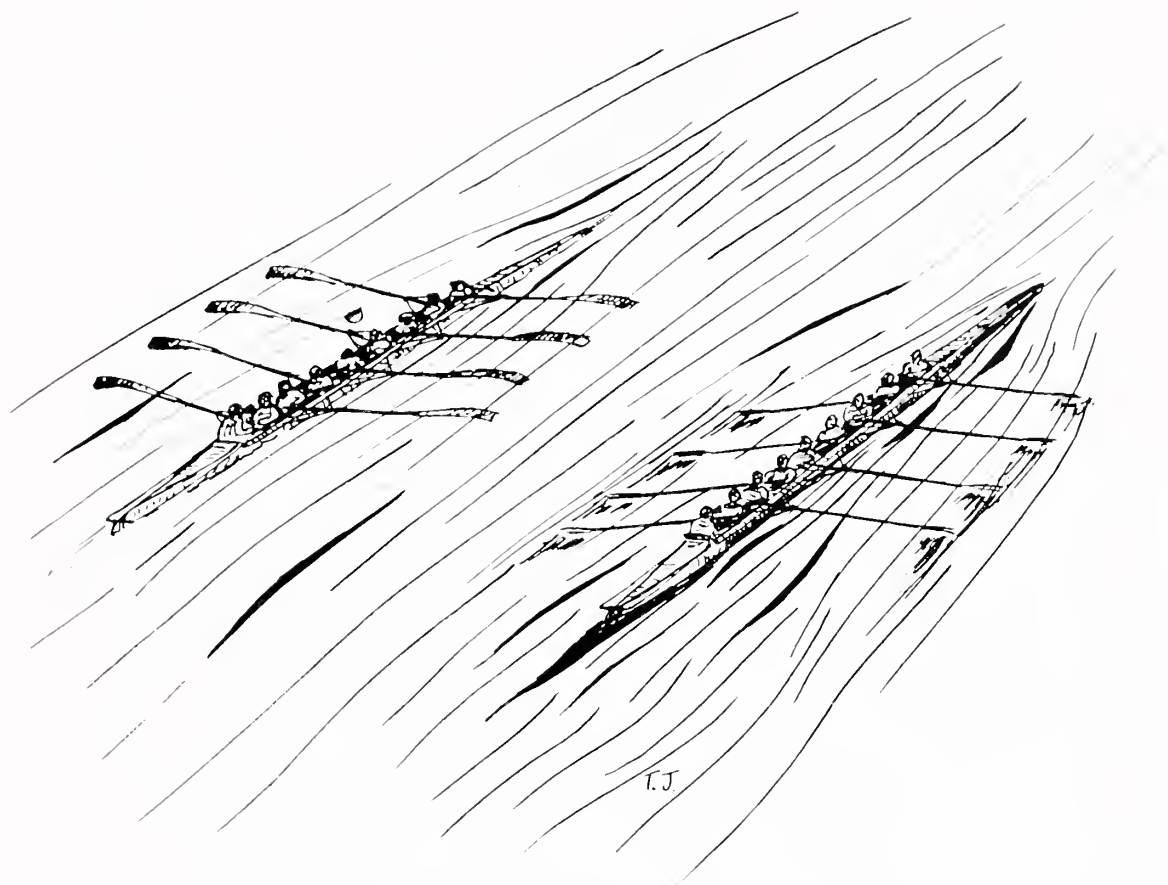

MAY 31—Our good ship has traveled far since I last got in your hair. Maybe we can recall some of the highlights of the elapsed time. The Seniors' "Jane Eyre" was presented, starring Louise Webb and Bobby Walker. Achievement pins were awarded at the last assembly by the Student Council. We do have some really bright people here, after all. The hiking must have helped.

Boy! The Seniors have been busy! They got a picnic and hay ride, too. I'm still shaking hay seeds from my hair.

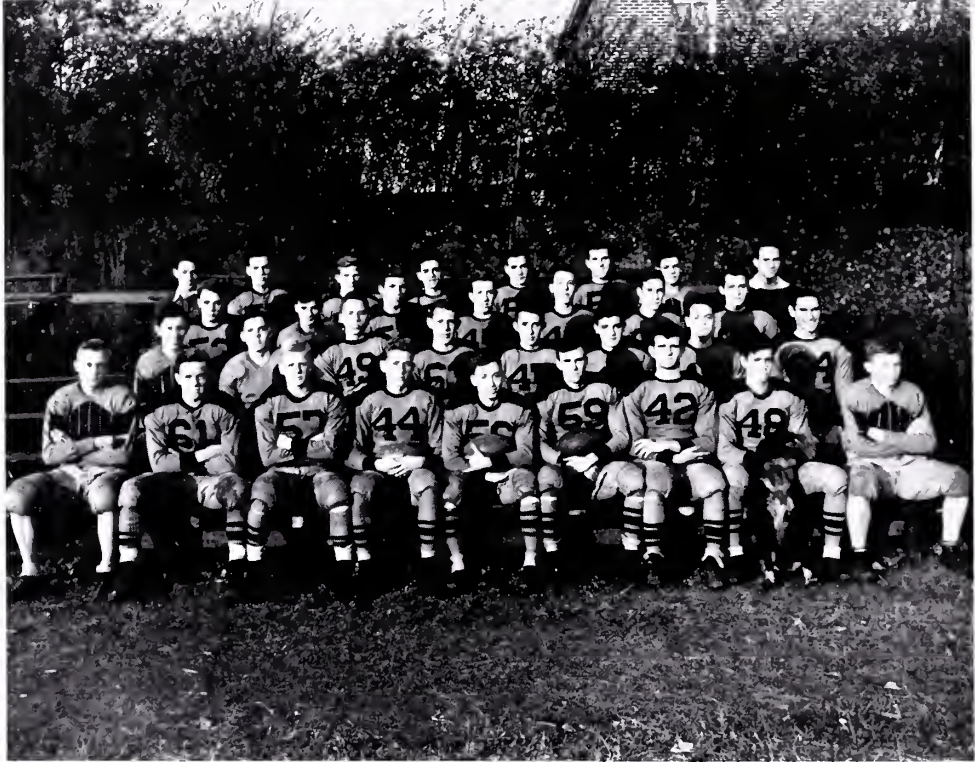

Then, as I recall (though I may be slightly mixed up), the V-L Contests came off at the University.

Last but not least we went to the closing festivities. All of a sudden I found it was time to put on my monkey hat and gown and attend the baccalaureate sermon at the Christian Church. The first Senior final, the banquet, graduation, and the last Senior final have come in a whirl. These have been a gay four years, packed with memories. Good-bye! Lane! We hope to represent you well in the lives we take up from here.

MINOR SPORTS

*Upper: TENNIS SQUAD
Lower: TRACK SQUAD*

TENNIS

The tennis squad this year was sponsored by Mr. Smoot. Practices were held regularly. A large number of girls participated in the intra-mural tennis tournament held in April. Veterans returning from last year were: Helen Burrows, Ann Walker, Mary Jane Sneed, Imogene Marshall, and Marguerite Stahl.

TRACK

Miss Yancey, basketball coach, was sponsor for the track team and calisthenics this year. Even though practices were supposedly held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, both teams were seen practising hard every day. Field Day was held on May 5.

MINOR SPORTS

Upper: SOFTBALL Lower: HIKING.

SOFTBALL

Softball enthusiasts were so numerous that two teams had to be organized. They held their practices on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays under the sponsorship of Mrs. Meade and Miss Brown. Ann Puckett, who was elected manager, proved to be a very capable one.

HIKING

Six hikes were planned under the sponsorship of Miss Bolen and Miss Holladay, two of which were supper hikes. Over eighty girls came out for hiking, and they covered all the routes within five miles of Charlottesville. The most enjoyable of all the hikes was the one to Sky-line Drive.
